LAW SECRETARIAT

Passes orders regarding the establishment of a Rural Welfare Centre at Anandapuram, Sagar Taluk.

READ—

Government Order No. L. 8044-51—V. P. 57-36-1, dated 6—10th May 1937, passing orders regarding the establishment of a Rural Welfare Centre at Closepet.

2. Government Order No. 4107-22—V. P. 31-39-7, dated 28th October 1939, passing orders on the Management of the Rural Welfare Centre at Dodballapur.

3. Letter No. C. A. C. 429—43-44, dated 21st March 1944, from the Secretary, Central Advisory Committee for Rural Development, forwarding a resolution of the Committee recommending that Rural Welfare Centres on the lines of those established at Closepet and Dodballapur may be started in two of the Malnad Districts.

4. Correspondence ending with letter No. R. D. R1. C. 234—43-44, dated 12th July 1944, from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, forwarding proposals for the establishment of a Rural Welfare Centre at Anandapuram, Sagar Taluk, Shimoga District.

ORDER NO. L. 6043-58—V. P. 17-43-6, DATED BANGALORE, THE 19TH DECEMBER 1944.

The question of starting Rural Welfare Centres in the Malnad Districts is being urged repeatedly on the attention of Government at the Sessions of the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council and at the District Conferences. The Central Advisory Committee for Rural Development have also recommended that two Rural Welfare Centres may be started during the current year in the Malnad Districts.

2. The Revenue Commissioner was accordingly requested to submit suitable proposals for the establishment of a Centre at Anandapuram, Sagar Taluk. He forwarded detailed proposals for starting a Centre at Anandapuram on the lines of those at Closepet and Dodballapur with slight modifications to suit the local conditions.

3. As the establishment of a Rural Welfare Centre will be an important step towards the improvement of villages in the Malnad Area, Government are pleased to direct that a Rural Welfare Centre be established at Anandapuram, Sagar Taluk, during the current year. The initial and the annual recurring expenditure for the Centre is estimated at Rs. 15,000 and Rs. 5,040, respectively, and it will be met out of the provision made in the State Budget under "Assignments to Village Panchayets" during the current year. Separate provision will be made therefor in the State Budget from 1945-46 onwards.

4. The work to be done at the Centre is detailed in the statement appended to this order and it will be restricted to begin with to 159 villages (83 Asli and 76 Majare) of Sagar Taluk and gradually extended to other villages as indicated therein.

5. The Special Officer for Rural Development in Mysore who will be Chairman of the Committee of Management of this Rural Welfare Centre is requested to take immediate action for starting the Centre and to submit to Government proposals for appointing the establishment, etc., required for the purpose.

6. The Heads of Development Departments are requested to extend to the Chairman of the Managing Committee their co-operation for the successful working of the Centre.

C. NARAYANASWAMY NAIDU,
Secretary to Government,
Law Department.

APPENDIX I.

ESTABLISHMENT OF A RURAL WELFARE CENTRE AT ANANDAPURAM, SAGAR TALUK.

I. Location.—The Rural Welfare Centre will be established at Anandapuram. It will be located in a suitable building to be constructed in S. No. 132 (which is in the khate of Mr. A. Ramakrishna Iyengar).

II. Objects.—The object of the Centre will be to carry out intensive work in bringing about improvements in the existing conditions of rural life and economy by concentrating attention in compact groups of villages. Such work will consist mainly in introducing the results of the experiments that have already been tried out by the several Development Departments. The main idea will be to disseminate information and to carry such improved methods to the door of the agriculturists. With a view to enlisting the live interest of the people in such work, the experiments and demonstrations will be carried out in the village itself, as far as possible, with the co-operation of the raiyats themselves and their own lands.

The officers of the several Development Departments such as Agriculture, Horticulture, Veterinary, Co-operation and Industries and Commerce, Public Health and Sanitation will assist the Centre in this reconstruction work.

III. Area of Operations.—The operation of this Centre will extend over 83 Asli and 76 Majare villages in Sagar Taluk. The activities will gradually be extended to the other villages in due course.

IV. Method of Work.—To begin with, promising populous villages in the area of operation will be selected for introducing improvements in existing methods and new lines of activities. Statistical and other information relating to such villages will be collected and maintained in the Centre. The Centre will serve as an Enquiry Office and information bureau in all matters relating to Rural Development and its service will be fully available to all persons interested in development work.

As the work of the Centre develops, the Centre may undertake the training of batches of rural workers by instructing such courses of lectures supplemented by visits to the villages where improvement works have been introduced and are in progress.

V. Activities of the Centre.—The following is a rough indication on the lines of work which the several Development Departments may undertake in the selected hoblis.

(i) Agriculture.—(1) Establishing demonstration seed plots for paddy, ragi and any other commercial crops suited to the locality.

2. Formation of orchards and nurseries of fruit plants such as can easily be raised in Rural Malnad parts.

3. Introduction of bee-culture : For this purpose, a dozen or two hives may be established in a few selected villages.

4. Establishment of a few poultry runs on modern lines.

5. Distribution of improved seeds, manure, agricultural and industrial implements, etc.

6. Conducting experiments in the methods of drying areca.

(ii) Live-Stock Improvement.—(1) Stud bulls will be stationed in a few selected villages for the improvement of both draught and milch cattle.

(2) Systematic castration of all scrub bulls in a few selected villages to be attempted.

(3) Establishing milk-collecting centres on approved lines so as to ensure supply of pure milk on the one hand and to secure better prices for the persons engaged in [illegible]

(iii) Forest.—(1) The Forest Department will arrange to supply plants of economic value to the selected villages from a nursery to be raised in a village to be selected for the purpose.

(2) Suitable plots in gomal and other lands may be chosen in some of the selected villages and cashewnut, tamarind and cocoanut plantations may be tried with a view to increasing the resources of local panchayats.

(iv) Industries.—(1) A hand-loom weaving section may be attached to the Centre to survey the condition of the industry in the area and to conduct demonstrations in suitable places.

(2) Demonstrations for the manufacture of agricultural implements may be arranged for the benefit of local blacksmiths and carpenters.

(3) Other village industries to be fostered and developed.

(v) Public Health and Sanitation.—(1) Improvement of sanitary conditions of the villages including house sanitation, propaganda work, in connection with the improvement of general sanitation of the villages and giving talks on various health topics during the visits of the departmental officers to the villages to be undertaken.

(2) Affording public health services to the people in the rural areas. Surveys should be made to find out the number of unprotected children.

(a) Medical inspection of school children.
(b) Spleen survey.

(vi) Co-operation.—A few whole-sale and retail co-operative marketing and consumers' societies may be established.

VI. Accommodation.—The Centre will be located, as stated above, in a building to be constructed in S. No. 132 of Mallandur Village belonging to Mr. Ramakrishna Iyengar. The building may consist of one big hall and two rooms with verandahs on both sides. The hall will be used for lectures and meetings, for a library and museum. One of the rooms will be allotted for the office and the other for visitors. It will also be necessary to have separate godowns and store-rooms for stocking seeds, manure, agricultural and industrial implements, etc., to be issued to the village for demonstration work as well as for sale.

VII. Staff.—The Centre will be under the charge of the Revenue Sub-Division Officer, Sagar. He will be assisted by an officer of the status of Deputy Amildar who will be in direct charge of the Centre as Manager. The Manager will be responsible to co-ordinate the work of the several departments. The other staff will consist of one clerk and two peons.

VIII. Supervision and Control.—The policy of the Centre and its activities will be guided and controlled by a Committee of Management consisting of the following officers :—

1. The Special Officer for Rural Development (Chairman).
2. ,, Assistant Director of Agriculture, Shimoga District.
3. ,, Deputy Director of Elementary Education.
4. ,, District Forest Officer.
5. ,, District Medical Officer, Shimoga District.
6. ,, Health Officer in charge of Health Centre, Shimoga.
7. ,, Deputy Registrar of Co-operative Societies.
8. ,, District Veterinary Officer, Shimoga District.
9. ,, Executive Engineer, Shimoga District.
10. ,, Superintendent of Sericulture.
11. ,, Deputy Director of Industries and Commerce.
